

President . Scott Morison

The principal owner of Browns Restaurant Group is Scott Morison. Scott is responsible for concept and restaurant design. He is heavily involved in programs that shape Browns Restaurant Group concepts including the music program, product development and many marketing initiatives. With an uncanny ability to understand the needs of customers, his first instinct is to focus on the guest experience, ensuring it is at the forefront of everything Browns works to accomplish.

Scott Morison and his 25 years of experience bring an amazing dynamic to the business. His intuitive perception of the needs of target demographics and his ability to design beautiful rooms - that people want to talk about, make him an industry leader in concept development and menu design. After opening dozens of cutting edge restaurants, Scott has honed his amazing problem solving skills and become a very patient, optimistic soul that thrives off challenges and celebrates successes.

Scott attributes his ideas and influences to his travels around the world. Prior to the conception of Cactus Club, Scott created and operated the successful Cafè Cucamonga's, a sandwich and ice cream parlor. Scott was trained as a chef at the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology and first practiced those skills with Earls in the early eighties.
